

DILATORY SULTAN
CAUSES TROUBLESHOWS NO HASTE TO REPLY TO THE POWERS.

The Crisis is Fast Approaching—Possibility of a Naval and Military Demonstration—Fears for the Safety of American Missionaries—Another Conference of Ambassadors Held.

Constantinople, Nov. 13.—The reply of the porte to the communications sent after the meeting of the ambassadors Monday has been waited with interest, as in their note the representatives of the powers used much stronger language than heretofore, and positively insisted upon being immediately informed as to what steps the Turkish government intended to make for the restoration of order in the disturbed provinces of Asia Minor.

The porte yesterday, replying to the identical notes of the ambassadors of Germany, Austria, and Italy, simply said that information regarding the scheme of reform in Armenia would be forwarded to the representatives of the powers "without delay." It is not yet known if the notes of the ambassadors of Great Britain, Russia, and France have been replied to; but it is presumed that they were also assured that their requests for information regarding the proposed reforms would be complied with "without delay."

Surprise is expressed, even by the diplomats of this city, who expect almost anything from the porte, at the action of the sultan in sanctioning the official note issued Monday, expressing Abdul Hamid's thanks for the "energetic measures taken by the imperial authorities" in "suppressing" the disturbances in Asia Minor, asserting that "order has now been restored in all the districts recently the scene of riots and conflicts," and adding that "precautions have been taken to insure the maintenance of order."

This really looks like mocking the ambassadors, and as second in importance to the snub administered by the sultan to Great Britain in decorating Bahri Pasha and giving him the command of the troops going to Zeitoun, after he had been removed from a governorship at the instance of the British ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, for his ill-treatment of Armenians.

As to order being restored in the disturbed districts, it need only be said that the mobilization of about 150,000 troops to be sent to these districts is progressing as actively as the Turkish government can push such an undertaking, hampered as it is by lack of funds and the incompetency of its officials. Then, again, advice received here yesterday announce fresh disturbances at Marash, Bitlis, and Sivas, with their attendant massacres.

It is also reported that a battalion of Turkish troops which were in garrison at Zeitoun, and which recently distinguished itself by surrounding and shooting down a number of Armenian insurgents, was later besieged in its barracks by the Armenians to whom the soldiers eventually capitulated, with arms and ammunition, bag and baggage. The Armenians now occupy the quarters at Zeitoun recently occupied by the Turkish soldiery.

Considerable anxiety is felt in American circles here on account of the absence of news from the districts where the American missionaries are stationed, and United States Ambassador Alexander W. Terrell has telegraphed to Commissioner Darnham at Harput, asking him if the American missionaries are safe.

It is stated in European official circles that as a result of an additional exchange of views between the powers, through their representatives here and at the different capitals, it is believed that a joint course of action, involving a display of naval and possibly military force, has already been decided upon, with the view of restoring order in Armenia. Nothing definite, however, appears to be known regarding the course of action decided upon, but it is now believed that the sultan will not be allowed to trifle with the ambassadors for many days longer, and news of an important nature is expected at any moment.

The financial condition continues to be unsatisfactory, in spite of the efforts of the Imperial Bank to bolster up the finances of the Turkish Empire. In fact, bourse business here is almost entirely suspended, and it is believed that this condition of affairs will be continued until the European powers demonstrate to the sultan in the only manner that he is capable of understanding that the cruelty and incompetency of Turkish officials can no longer be permitted to endanger the peace of Europe.

A prominent member of the diplomatic corps is quoted as saying that "the end of all this business is fast approaching," and this is the view taken of the situation by Europeans generally.

The government has decided to mobilize another twenty battalions of redifs, which will make sixty battalions mobilized. And yet it was only Monday that the porte issued an official note, saying that "order has now been restored in all the districts recently the scene of riots and conflicts," etc. It is understood that these mobilized troops are intended to occupy certain strategic points in Asiatic Turkey, from each of which points flying columns will be sent out into the surrounding country in order to attempt the suppression of the constantly occurring riots and massacres. Another conference of the ambassadors was held yesterday at the official residence of the French ambassador, M. Cambon.

Dastardly Crime at Goshen, Ind.

Elkhart, Ind., Nov. 13.—Intense excitement prevails at Goshen, the county seat, over a brutal assault upon Miss Carrie Connell. She was riding upon her bicycle last Saturday evening, and was near the outskirts of town about dark. Just as she was going to return a stranger grabbed her by the waist, dragged her from her wheel, and assaulted her, after which he mounted his bicycle and rode away. The young lady dragged herself to her home and gave the alarm. The sheriff was notified and the neighborhood has been scoured for the ruffian, but so far the authorities have failed to capture him. Miss Connell is in a precarious condition.

Coleman Stole $47,000.

Fort Scott, Kan., Nov. 13.—The condition of the State bank of this city, which was recently wrecked by Cashier J. R. Coleman, and in which Thornton Ware of Chicago is the largest stockholder, was officially announced by Receiver Mitchell last evening. It is found that Coleman's shortage is $47,000. The liabilities are $93,000, and the assets $109,000, exclusive of worthless and doubtful securities. It is firmly believed that Coleman did not lose all the money he stole. He will give the explanation of what disposition he made of it. He is still in the county jail and has fully recovered from the nervous attack occasioned by his exposure.

Chicago Wants Both Conventions.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Though there has been no organized movement among local politicians to bring the national democratic convention to Chicago next summer, the subject is attracting much attention. When the time comes for Chicago to put forward her claims, it is believed that the national committee will decide that this is the best city in the country for the purposes of a convention. Republican politicians are confident that their national convention will be held here.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR
TALK POLITICSIMPORTANT MEETING HELD AT WASHINGTON.

Nineteenth Convention of the Order
Convenes at the Capital City—Sessions Will All Be Held in Secret as They May Decide to Take Political Action.

state of the order. He thinks the progress of the Knights of Labor is more marked at present than ever before, and that the increase of membership, in the face of hard times, is exceedingly gratifying. One of the important subjects to be discussed at the convention will be the attitude of the members of the order toward political parties during the next national campaign. While the populists have embodied many of the principles of the knights in their platform, the latter think that in view of their voting strength the recognition should go further. A large number of delegates are in the city.

CONGRESS OF BAPTISTS.

Important Gathering at Providence, R.

I.—The Chicago University.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 13.—The thirteenth annual Baptist congress, comprising lay and clerical delegates from Baptist churches throughout the country, assembled here yesterday. The report of Secretary Thomas J. Morgan shows that the home mission work has assumed great importance during the last year, the Baptist church in the west and northwest having made great strides. It is expected that the congress will take some action with reference to the University of Chicago. A very general impression exists in the public mind that the university is in some manner or other an official exponent of Baptist ideas. This inference has been very disagreeable to Baptists everywhere, and the church has gone out of its way to make it known that it has nothing officially to do with that institution of learning.

CHALLENGES THE WORLD.

Peter Maher Has the Center of the Pugilistic Stage.

New York, Nov. 13.—J. J. Quinn, the manager of Peter Maher, who knocked out O'Donnell so readily Monday night, made a statement yesterday in behalf of the fighter. He said: "Maher challenges any man in the world to fight for the championship and he will not put the stakes so high that no one except a man with 3,000,000 acres behind him can accept. Maher will fight for $5,000 a side, in public or in private, and he will go to any place to do battle—South Africa not barred." Quinn said that Maher would not challenge Corbett because Corbett had asked him as a personal favor not to do so, as he had retired. Maher goes to Philadelphia to visit friends, and will then be ready to meet all comers. The Irish champion is but 26 years of age, and weighed 170 pounds on the night of the fight.

Thirty-one charred bodies, including the teacher's, have so far been taken out. The fire is believed to have been incendiary, and two boys who had been severely punished by the teacher and suspended from school are believed to be the authors of the crime. They have been arrested, but so far have not confessed.

FOR A BIG UNION.

Reform Forces May Unite for the Campaign of 1896.

A letter signed by about 100 men and women of one or the other of the minor parties was sent to the national committee of the populist, prohibition, and socialist parties, asking that a subcommittee of three be appointed to confer with reference to a joint national conference. At a conference held last summer what is known as the "Staten Island basis of union" was adopted, and a committee, composed of Edward Evans of Tonawanda, Mrs. Freeman Gray of San Francisco, and E. J. Wheeler, was appointed to communicate with the heads of the various reform parties relative to calling an authoritative union conference.

CONDEMN LYNCHINGS.

Against the Practice.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 13.—Nearly 3,000 people attended a mass meeting in Faneuil hall last night to protest against the practice of lynching and burning negroes in southern and other states. The meeting was held under the auspices of the various colored societies of Boston and vicinity. The speeches were by both white and colored men and were vigorously applauded. Mayor Edwin U. Curtis presided, and among the speakers were Congressman Elijah A. Morse, Judge Edward Walker and Father Scully. At the conclusion of the speeches the Hon. George A. Downing presented a resolution, which was adopted unanimously, condemning the practice of lynching in the strongest terms.

The society will next meet in November, 1896, the time and place to be chosen later. The bishops and conference representatives left last evening for Denver to meet the missionary society. Murphy will speak for the defense.

BATTLE SHIP IS WEAK.

United States Cruiser Texas Severely
Strained in Dry Dock.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The battleship Texas has come to grief in the dry dock at New York and has sustained damages, the extent of which is not known here at present. Commandant Sicard a week ago called for a detailed account of the injuries sustained by the ship, and in return received from the constructor a report stating exactly and by number the injured frames and where they were located. This report was transmitted to the navy department, with the statement by the commandant that no delay in the work then in progress on the ship would ensue, and that the straining appeared to be due to the weight of the ship on the keel blocks. The department was not altogether satisfied and has called for still further particulars regarding the report so far made as preliminary. There is a belief that the Texas was too lightly built to stand her own weight while in dock, and if this should be the case, it would cost a large sum of money and much time to straighten the hull. The vessel was built on plans purchased from England, and it is said that the department officials were of the opinion from the first that they were defective in that too much in strength has been sacrificed in order to save weight and make the vessel float at the calculated displacement.

Will Give Debs a Reception.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 13.—All the preparations have been completed to give Eugene V. Debs, the imprisoned president of the American Railway union, a rousing reception on the occasion of his liberation from the Woodstock jail, Nov. 22. Indorsed Too Much Paper.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 13.—C. M. Loring, hitherto considered financially one of the solid men of the Northwest, has made an assignment. Two years ago he was worth $800,000. The statement filed with the deed of assignment shows the total assets to be $755,000; personal liabilities, $165,000; liabilities on account of indorsements, $206,000. The necessity of making the assignment was on account of the falling due of the indorsed paper, which could not be met by the makers. There are said to be assets enough to pay all indebtedness and leave a substantial balance if the property is not sacrificed.

Boy Dies of Grief.

New York, Nov. 13.—John Jennings, 11 years old, of 200 Fourteenth street, Jersey City, was one of the most grief-stricken mourners at the funeral of his mother yesterday. He would not be consoled, and broke down entirely when the earth was dropped upon the coffin in St. Peter's cemetery. Returning from the cemetery, he cried until with a start he became unconscious, and extremely pale. The coach stopped at the office of Dr. Culver, who pronounced it a case of heart failure, caused by grief. After Dr. Culver had treated him, the coach took the boy to the city hospital. When he was taken from the coach he was dead.

The record promises to startle the people of this state, as well as the country.

THE LOCAL W.C.T.U. BUY THE FIRST LOT

JANESVILLE UNION START THE BALL ROLLING.

"Rest Home" Project Gets Its Start In This City—Action Taken at The Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon—The Officers Elected—The Other Business Done.

Janesville's local white ribbon organization bought the first lot sold in the Willard Heights addition, the deal being made at the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the Baptist church parlors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. G. Hodge was the presiding officer and the session was called to order at 4 o'clock. After prayer by Mrs. Graves, the reports of the secretary and treasurer were received and read and it was decided to secure Mrs. Edith Davis for a lecture at some future date and to make arrangements looking toward the hiring Miss Millie Hand for a bible reading. Mrs. M. B. Millmore then told about the district convention at Brodhead after which officers were elected as follows, Mrs. M. G. Hodge as a pastore wife retaining the position of honorary vice president:

President—Mrs. E. E. Yates.
Vice-President—Mrs. Anna R. Knox.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. J. L. Ford.
Assistant Secretary—Mrs. W. E. Clinton.

Mrs. M. G. Hodge and Mrs. J. L. Ford were appointed a committee to see if room for the association's meetings could not be secured in the new Y. M. C. A. building.

Miss Fockler Introduced.

Miss Irene Fockler, private secretary to Miss Willard, was then introduced, and outlined the "Rest Home" project, she being the assistant manager of the scheme. She said that A. S. Maxham, the originator of the plan, was a retired Methodist minister, he having abandoned his work in the Rock River conference because of the illness of his wife. He had always been an active sympathizer in the W. C. T. U. work, and when he conceived the "Rest Home" plan he succeeded in interesting J. H. Curtis & Co. of Chicago. Miss Fockler then explained her connection with the project, saying that she had been selected to visit the unions in the state on account of her acquaintance, and interest each union in purchasing a lot with the view of making the grounds a summer assembly and national headquarters. This was the object which interested the workers of the cause. Business men looked at it from a business standpoint and were interested from a different motive. Janesville had never had never had such an advertising from Main to California as had been given by the scheme.

Want the Car Line Extended.

Public influence, she said, would be brought to secure the extension of the street car line to the School for the Blind, and in case the line was built that far, the company would continue it to Willard Heights. The streets at Willard Heights were named, she said, after Miss Willard's personal friends, some of them in this city. An endowment of at least $10,000 will be given the home from the balance of the lots after the 200 are sold. To local unions the terms were ten dollars down and the balance in monthly installments of ten dollars. The work was being begun in Janesville.

At the conclusion of Miss Fockler's remarks the union voted to buy a lot, the members personally assuming the responsibility of one dollar each per month, the ten dollar deposit to be raised in some other manner. One lady, not a member of the union, donated three dollars per month for a year and the members would fully appreciate aid from any source in purchasing the first lot sold in the new addition, they being, virtually, the starters of the enterprise.

Mrs. E. E. Yates then offered prayer, after which the meeting adjourned. Another meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 27, at which time a report on the progress of the effort to raise funds to pay the first deposit on the lot will be made.

CONDUCTORS TO SCAN PASSES

Railroad Companies Adopt the Regular Winter Precautions Against Fraud.

Local conductors on the St. Paul road have been notified to keep a strict watch on all passes and mileage presented by persons not known to them. The rule is made because of the fact that as the first of the year approaches, many people sell their mileage which will expire with the coming of 1896. Strangers who present mileage are therefore required to identify themselves completely.

NEW RULE FOR CLERGYMEN.

Holders of Half Fare Permits Must Hereafter Be Identified.

Hereafter all clergymen will have to be identified when they apply for a half fare ticket at any railroad station. This is a new rule but recently adopted by the Western Passenger Association, which, they claim, is made necessary by the frequency with which the railroads are defrauded by pretended ministers who have in some way secured a clergyman's permit. In addition to being identified, the holders of permits will be compelled to pay fifty cents each year when their application is renewed.

MRS. KING CHARMED
A LOCAL AUDIENCEA DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL AT CHRIST CHURCH.

Janesville Elocutionist Surprised Her Hearers—Concordia Society Gave an Entertainment and Dance—Rebekahs Surprise the Odd Fellows—Whist and Literary Clubs Meet.

Mrs. Minnie Guernsey-King charmed a Janesville audience with her readings at the monthly meeting of the Christ Church Social Union last night. She received an ovation when she finished her number on the program, and was twice recalled. She certainly has wonderful abilities as an elocutionist, and the enthusiastic way in which she was greeted was a fitting compliment to her talents. Her selections were rendered with a finish that was artistic and a grace that was charmingly natural.

A bass solo by Harry P. Robinson was next on the program and was rendered in a way that won him an encore. Miss Lucie Waldo, of Milwaukee playing his accompaniment. The piano and violin duet, by Mrs. Buckner and Miss Mamie Hillbrandt, was one of the features of the evening and after Miss Waldo had played a social march the evening was devoted to dancing to the music of Dutton's orchestra.

CONCORDIA SOCIETY MAKE MERRY
Music and Dancing the Features of a Most Enjoyable Entertainment.

Members of the Concordia society and their invited friends had a jolly time at Concordia hall, last evening, the event being the regular monthly social session of the society. An overture by Smith's orchestra opened the program, and a selection by the singing society followed. A piano duet by the Misses Kneek came next, and it was a very pleasing performance. An orchestra selection with a coronet solo by Al. Kneff was the fourth number, and was fully enjoyed. After the singing society had won new laurels by the rendition of their second number, Miss Mamie Kneff played a piano solo most charmingly. The program closed with numbers by the orchestra and the singing society after which the floor was cleared for the dancing then continued until one o'clock.

ODD FELLOWS HALL RAIDED.

Daughters of Rebekah Perpetrated a Surprise Party Last Evening.

Members of Janesville City Lodge, No. 90, I. O. O. F. were much surprised last evening, when while in the midst of their work, the lodge room was invaded by a large number of the Daughters of Rebekah who came unheralded and unannounced. Sociability then succeeded the regular exercises and a bountiful feast was served to one hundred and twenty-five. Card tables were brought out and with hearts, whist, clinch and dancing, the hours passed away all too quickly.

SOME MINOR SOCIAL NOTES

PROF. and Mrs. H. C. Buell entertained the Cleosopie society at their home last night, the subject of the evening being Greek History. The wars of Greece were described by Dr. R. J. Hart, while A. E. Matheson told of the Grecian philosophers. Miss Jennie Spoon spoke of the progress of their civilization, while Miss May Farnsworth dealt with literature and J. E. Wallin with art. Mr. Wallin was the leader of the session, which was most enjoyable as well as exceptionally profitable in a literary way.

THE most unsatisfactory theatrical performance possible, is a poor minstrel show, and about the poorest minstrel show on the road was the one that Myers' Grand patrons saw last night. Howard & Osborn are the proprietors of the aggregation, a fact that they should be thoroughly ashamed of. There was not a redeeming feature to the performance, unless, perhaps, it was that they "cut a me of it out."

"SOCIAL and Political History of the Greeks," was the subject discussed by the University Association at the meeting held in the new High school building last night. There were three papers read, they being as follows: "Representative Men," J. F. Fitchett; "Most Important Events," Miss Louise Wilbur; "Agricultural Industrial and Artistic Development," W. G. Kildow. The session was held in the science room.

MR. and Mrs. F. C. Haselton entertained "Hizzonor's Whist Club" last evening at their home 256 South Jackson street. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. F. S. Baines and Mrs. T. S. Nolan and the session was one that all enjoyed greatly.

A. G. Bartley of Magic, Pa., writes: "I feel it a duty of mine to inform you and the public that DeWitt's Little Hazel Salve cured me of a very bad case of eczema. It also cured my boy of a running sore on his leg." C. D. Stevens.

PRICE OF POTATOES IS HIGHER

Farmers are Not Bringing on as Many as They Did a While Ago.

Local grocers are much interested in the price of potatoes, for they are in some cases running short. Farmers are not coming in the way they did five weeks ago, and the result is that more potatoes are being shipped in from out of the city. A car arrived yesterday from New London and sold at wholesale for twenty-two cents. The grocers are now getting twenty-eight and thirty-five cents a bushel. Five weeks ago the tubers were a drug on the market at eighteen and twenty cents a bushel.

For Gifts.

We have the nicest line of fancy china for presents and gifts of all kinds, you ever saw. Everything imaginable the lot contains. Lowell's Annex.

Physicians Have Found Out

That a contaminating and foreign element in the blood, developed by indigestion, is the cause of rheumatism. This settles upon the sensitive sub-cutaneous covering of the muscles and ligaments of the joints, causing constant and shifting pain, and aggregating as a calcareous, chalky deposit, which produces stiffness and distortion of the joints. No fact which experience has demonstrated in regard to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has stronger evidence to support than this, namely that this medicine of comprehensive uses checks the formidable and atrocious disease, nor is it less positively established than it is preferable to the poisons often used to arrest it, since the medicine contains only salutary ingredients. It is also a signal remedy for malarial fevers, constipation, dyspepsia, kidney and bladder ailments, debility and other disorder. See that you get the genuine.

A Coat That Fits Well

on the shoulders and neck, is an unknown thing in ready-clothing, and with many so-called tailors, who cut either with block patterns or proportionate systems.

A good cutter was never turned out of a cutting school; theory don't go, alone; it's practice, after learning a proportionate system at a cutting school; the would-be cutter must gain his experience at some unfortunate merchant's expense. Our cutter is a practical man; neither a block pattern block-head, nor a too lazy to work cutting school student, nor a cheap man in any sense. M. T. Middleton is the author of the perfection balance system.

A reliable system, the fruit of study and brains; and a guarantee fit try on or no try on.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1775—General Montgomery captured Montreal.
 1796—Catherine II of Russia died; born 1729.

1800—Admiral John Adolph Dahlgren, inventor of the Dahlgren naval gun and leader of the squadron before Charleston in 1863-4, born in Philadelphia; died 1870.

1863—Johann Ludwig Uhland, one of the greatest of modern German poets, died at Tübingen; born there 1787. Uhland studied law in his native town and took a degree of LL.D. He represented Tübingen in the assembly in 1819, and in 1830 was appointed to the chair of languages and literature at the University of Tübingen. In 1836 he was a member of the Diet and opposed the constitution. His songs began to appear in 1815. They were patriotic and became widely popular. Simplicity and tenderness joined with deep religious feeling characterized his poetry.

1868—David Tod, "war governor" of Ohio, died; born 1804.

1890—Rev. Henry Martyn Dexter, editor of The Congregationalist, died in Boston; born 1821.

THE TAX LEVY.

The fact that a republican administration, not having the $327,902 from ex-state treasurers and the $89,466 of refunded war tax to fall back on, levies a heavier tax than that of 1894, causes democrats much joy.

Their joy will be short-lived.

Figures show its emptiness.

Examination of the records show that the low tax levy of 1894 was made possible by the most bold-faced jugglery. When the Peck administration retired it left $150,000 of unpaid bills, many of them over a year old, and left the general fund $32,900 overdrawn.

All this was in spite of over $700,000 revenue not derived from any of the usual sources. The largest part of it was the money received from the bondsmen of the ex-state treasurers, from a refunding of the direct war taxes by the government and from interest on bank deposits—sources which were outside of the usual sources of revenues to the state. According to the report of the secretary of state, the items out of the general fund applied to lowering the state tax levy in 1894 were as follows:

Amount received from ex-state treasurers.....$327,902 55

Direct war tax refunded.....89,466 10

Interest on bank deposits.....46,664 78

Railroad and insurance licenses and office fees.....278,556 57

Total.....$742,590 00

All this money came to the Peck jugglers as if they had found it. It had nothing to do with the ordinary channels of revenue, but in spite of it all a deficit of $193,000 was left.

Allow for the $742,570 of extra resources in 1894. Reckon in the $183,000 shortage. Bear in mind that the ordinary revenues of the state are $643,655 less than they were for 1894. Add these expenses which the Peck jugglers in their last fiscal year did not have to meet.

Deficiency from the last administration.....$183,000

Cost of a legislative session.....150,000

Cost of taking state census.....100,000

Towards Seventh Normal school.....10,000

Special appropriations for Normal schools.....72,000

For manual training schools.....2,500

Additional university tax.....120,694

For Home for the Feeble Minded.....100,000

Total.....$555,194

Is it strange that with $739,194 of additional expenses and with $1,386,225 less revenue the present administration is obliged to make a heavier tax levy than in 1894-95.

CHANGES THAT ARE NEEDED.

Radical changes in the tariff will not be needed to make it meet government necessities. It will not be a consistent, well-balanced, satisfactory measure to be sure, but it will provide revenue enough for the nation's wants—something the Wilson law has never done.

A change from ad valorem to specific duties is one of the most important reforms. On sugar alone a specific duty of one cent a pound instead of the ad valorem duty of 40 per cent. would increase custom house receipts $8,000,000 a year. On other goods the increase would be in proportion.

Janesville merchants have had a chance to see how this ad valorem duty works in regard to woollens. As soon as the German or English goods approach the custom house, they mysteriously shrink in value under the ad valorem system of duty. As soon as the goods pass out of the custom house they as mysteriously rise in value. Against competition encouraged in this way home manufacturers can do but little and the business men of the country have a right to look to congress for relief.

Thus far the republicans are the only ones who criticize the proposed apportionment. Republicans here and there insist that some attention should be paid to partisan advantage. As for democrats they are silenced by the manifest fairness of the measure and astonished that a party in power should be so magnanimous after the wrongs suffered during the last four years.

This is a McKinley county. If it were left to the board of supervisors to do it Ohio's gallant ex-governor would be elected with hardly a dissenting voice. There are a good many farmers on the board and they know the difference between McKinleyism and Clevelandism as regards farm prices.

Rock County taxes will not be increased a dollar this year by insane asylum or poor house appropriations. To all intents and purposes the new institution is self sustaining. Who will say that the predictions of trustees have not been speedily and splendidly fulfilled.

New York lost in one respect by the big republican majority she piled up this year. She won't stand as good a chance for a place on the republican presidential ticket next year as she would if the majority were smaller.

Since ward politics and street cleaning were divorced in Chicago the work that used to cost $275 is done for $75 and done far better.

EMINENT TESTIMONY

Regarding the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Dr. Hartzman, who has made many tests of the new dyspepsia cure, is very enthusiastic in his praise of this excellent preparation. It is not a secret patent medicine, but is composed of pure pepsin, bismuth, fruit salts and vegetable essences, made into pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges and sold by druggists at 50 Cents per package, under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dr. Hartzman states that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and weak stomachs, because they possess the peculiar power of digesting whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach. They do not act on the bowels like cathartics, but act entirely on the food, digesting it thoroughly and quickly, giving the stomach a chance to rest and recover its natural strength, which it invariably will do after a course of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. If your druggist hasn't them in stock ask him to order a small quantity from his wholesaler.

GETTING THERE.

We have the largest stock of Woollens in Rock County—we have too many and fulls realizing the fact that but six weeks remain before the season closes—we propose to reduce our stock of Woollens if real low prices will do it. We have enjoyed an exceeding good trade since the first of August "Thanks" and have kept our tailors all busy and all of the time (in the shop not in the store). We are anxious to RUSH 'EM for the next six weeks, so we will make prices on Suits, Overcoats and Pants that will make them sell. First-class Suits, guaranteed all wool and reliable colors, $20 and upwards. Overcoats in Melton, Beaver, Shetland or Cheviot $25 and up. These goods are worth more but we have too many and prefer to cheapen now than later. You know us for veracity.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL THE JURY DECIDE

THE LAY INQUEST WAS FINISHED TODAY.

The Fatal Collision Was Due to The Fact That the Team They Were Driving Could Not Be Controlled—Motorman John Lynch Tells His Story.

The killing of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lay was accidental, and due to the fact that their team could not be controlled. Such was the verdict of the coroner's jury that heard the evidence, they reaching their decision at 11:30 o'clock this morning.

Motorman Lynch and Walter S. Rice were the only witnesses sworn. Motorman Lynch testified that he did not see the team until they were within twenty feet of the car. The horses were on the track. One of them was between the rails and the other was outside the rail on the side of the road toward the river.

When he saw them the car was not moving fast. He had told Peterson that he only had five minutes in which to reach the city, but when he looked at the clock inside the car he found that he had twelve minutes. Lynch said he thought a man was waiting for the car near the Bogardus residence and slowed up. When the man did not come forward, he started up again. This was near the scene of the accident.

Crash Came At Once.

Hardly had the car gotten under headway again, when Lynch saw the team coming. He shut off the current and set the brake. An instant later the collision occurred. One horse was thrown upon the platform of the car knocking Lynch through the door. He then told about the subsequent events all of which had been printed before.

Walter Rice was one of the first men at the scene and told the same story as the other witnesses.

All the evidence showing that the team jumped in front of the car while frightened, the jury formulated their verdict as follows:

"We find that the deceased came to their deaths on Nov. 8, 1895, by a collision between a street car and the vehicle in which they were riding, the said collision being an accident due to the unmanageable team of horses they were driving."

The verdict was signed by the jury: F. L. Clemons, F. M. Crouse, J. L. Bear, J. C. Spencer, C. E. Jenkins and W. T. Vankirk.

ANOTHER TOBACCO LAW SUIT.
Two Factions Have Meetings of Their Own in the Same Room.

Another law suit will be added to the Rock County Tobacco Growers Association's mix-up.

Some time ago suit was begun against Secretary A. L. Fisher by the directors of the association, they alleging that a large sum was still due.

It became common gossip that a board of directors friendly to the secretary would be appointed this year and the suit would be arbitrated.

Anti-Fisher stockholders rallied with the intention of defeating this plan.

A moment after the meeting was called to order this afternoon Attorney C. E. Pierce for the Fisher side, moved that a credentials committee headed by John Stockman be named.

Judge M. M. Phelps' amendment, that the chair appoint, was carried, and an anti-Fisher committeemen—George Lackner, Howard Lee and M. J. Aiken—were chosen. They asked for adjournment until Wednesday, November 20, and their request was granted after a lively equable.

No sooner had the adjournment been reached than the Fisher faction organized, and elected a board of directors headed by John Stockman.

A merry war is in progress.

Winslow's Purchase.

F. S. Winslow purchased today $8,000 worth of the Lowell Annex stock of clothing, and intends opening it up at his River street store tomorrow morning. STRONG'S FRIENDS SUSPECT SUICIDE

MISSING MAN BOUGHT A NEW REVOLVER.

When the Searchers Learned of This Fact Friday They Were Much Alarmed, and Took Up the Search With New Energy—Fort Atkinson Men Go to Chicago.

Friends of Ernest R. Strong, the missing butter, egg and cheese merchant made a discovery that alarmed them this morning.

Before his disappearance he bought a new revolver and a box of cartridges.

This at once gave rise to the theory that he had committed suicide, and the search for him was taken up with new energy. At Fort Atkinson, where Mr. Strong had made his home, there is much apprehension felt, and a delegation of citizens of that city have gone to Chicago to see if they can find any trace of him there.

George S. Brink of this city, says that he saw Mr. Strong in Chicago last Thursday, but did not speak to him as he seemed to be in a hurry and was walking with his head bent forward.

All the Chicago papers printed portraits of Mr. Strong this morning, together with his description.

Dr. Sunderland has been pastor of the First church for 42 years, and during that time has preached to more famous statesmen, legislators and diplomats than any man in the United States. Four presidents have worshipped at the famous old church—James K. Polk, Andrew Jackson, Franklin Pierce and Grover Cleveland. The Mayor of Milwaukee.

The municipality of Milwaukee was 50 years old recently, and the occasion of the semi-centennial anniversary was celebrated in fitting style. For two days there were parades and speeches and fireworks without stint. The man who was at the head of all this was Mayor Koch. The first mayor was Solomon Juneau, who founded the settlement. When he began his term, in 1846, there were but 10,000 people in the city. Now the population is fully 250,000.

Philosophy of the Face Veil.
In spite of the protestations of oculists, women continue to regard veils as an essential part of their toilet; first, because they are becoming, and second, because they keep their hat in order. The plain tulle and nets, which come in all colors, single and double widths, are always pleasant to wear and less trying on the eyes than the coarser meshes. Happily, the intention to revive the veil of Brussels net wrought in sprigged designs, has been a failure. It is becoming to nobody, and is essentially inartistic. Women with dark hair and eyes and a brilliant color look well in veils with the dots larger and nearer together. If the skin is clear white veils are very becoming, though apt to give an impression of a made-up complexion. The woman with fair hair and blue eyes and without color generally looks best in a large meshed black veil, with the dots—if dots are worn—far apart. A navy blue veil makes the skin look clear and fair, and a gray veil should never be worn by the pale or sallow woman.

Biddy (returning)—Please, ma'am, it isn't there.

Biddy—I can't find it.

Mistress—Then it must be in the cellar.

Biddy—I don't see it, ma'am.

Mistress—Then most likely you have eaten it.

Biddy—Yes, ma'am.

AN INVENTION INDEED.

How a Woman's Skill Revolutionized a Great Industry.

Among the inventions of women on exhibition at Atlanta is one interesting for two reasons—the first that it dates from a period before women were accounted active in any but the domestic world; and the second that it deals with a compartment of industry into which women always venture at the risk of being suspected of scant knowledge.

This is the straw-sewing machine, edge and less experience—that of mechanics.

which is entered by the committee on inventions by permission of its inventor, Mrs. Mary P. Carpenter Hooper, of this city. Although its patent has now expired, and its usefulness in part done away with, this little machine, not as big as a typewriter, worked a revolution in a great industry, and to-day there is not one inch of straw braid sewn into hats by machinery anywhere in the world that does not employ a part of Mrs. Hooper's invention to accomplish the work.

Mrs. Hooper is the daughter of a former New York lawyer, whose fingers itched with inventive skill while he kept them bound with the red tape of his profession, so the source of Mrs. Hooper's inventive faculty is not hard to find. It was while she was still Miss Carpenter that she learned through some interested friends of the curious state of affairs in the straw-sewing trade. Up to that time, 1871, there had been but one practical straw-sewing machine invented, which machine was controlled and used by a combination of three or four firms engaged in the manufacture of straw hats and bonnets. It was called the Bosworth machine, and was immensely valuable, although the operator had to be an expert before she could make a hat, as the sewing had to be done backward from the brim to the crown, and when done, the hat was wrong side out, a condition which often resulted in breaking the straw while it was being turned right.

As Miss Carpenter had shown herself possessed of pronounced inventive skill, of which the patent office already bore record, these facts were pointed out to her by some of the leading manufacturers, who were obliged to sew all their straw goods by hand, and she was encouraged to attempt to make a new machine which could be generally used. In 1872 she received a patent for her first model of a machine, but it was not satisfactory to herself, and no second machine was sent from it. A second attempt a year later did not fulfill all the requirements she strove for, but in June, 1875, Miss Carpenter completed a machine that could make a hat from its tip or top to the outer edge of the brim without taking it from the machine, and when it was finished it was right side out and did not have to be turned, and, moreover, concealed the stitch, a result heretofore unaccomplished.—New York Times.

Advice for "Sophy, Dear."

They boarded a Broadway car at Sixteenth street. "And so you're going to get a bicycle, Sophy, dear," said the first girl. And "Sophy, dear," with much enthusiasm, said that she was. "How perfectly lovely. It's such healthful exercise; it'll do you worlds of good. What wheel are you going to get? Are you set and determined on paying full price? Because, if you're not, Sophy, dear, I know where you can get a splendid $100 wheel for $50. It belongs to Bessie Bloomer. She dislocated her knee, you know, last June, and she's had to give up riding altogether, so she's simply wild to sell her wheel. It's a 'Can't Be Beat'; that's a splendid make, you know. But maybe you'd rather have a 'Right-in-It.' I know a girl who has a 'Right-in-It' for sale; it's such a safe wheel, and that's everything. What does the girl want to sell for? Oh, she had an awful fall last spring, and she hasn't been able to ride since. You might have had my wheel, Sophy, dear, but I sold it just last week to Susie Scorchier. Oh, yes, I've had to give up riding. Isn't it a shame? It's my heart, my dear. Why, it just used to pitterpat and pitterpat and pitterpat everything else, so the doctor said I'd have to stop unless I wanted my heart to. How I envy you, Sophy, dear, being able to bike. Oh, what fun you'll have and how much good it will do you. But, strange to say, 'Sophy, dear,' didn't look so wildly enthusiastic as she had a little while before.—New York Evening Sun.

New Electrical Fields.

The power of electricity to do heating under every variety of conditions, to handle all varieties of the atoms of matter, and to operate as a chemical and physical agent directly in and through all parts of the living system, necessarily gives it an almost unlimited field. Not only can it supply light by heating to brilliant incandescence either carbon or platinum, but it can no less readily fill any demand for heating, or for cooking by means of heating. It, with great sureness and refinement of action, executes plating and electrolyzing. Its immense and irresistible energy attacks with complete success the difficulties of smelting and of the reduction of refractory ores. And with more than the power of miracle it comes to the help of the surgeon and the physician, on lines of medical efficiency almost coincident with those of creative energy.

Do All Women Think They Are Pretty? Timmons—You remember that little book I got out called "How to Become Beautiful?" I thought it would go all right, but I have only sold two copies in eight months.

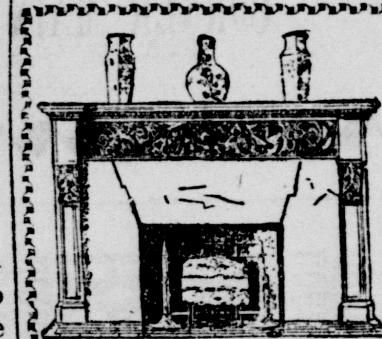

Simmons—You haven't any business sense. Call them in from the booksellers and change the title to "How to Become More Beautiful," and the women will make a regular bargain-counter rush for them.—Indianapolis Journal.

MUCH IN A NAME.

How Some Novel Writers Are Puzzled to Find Appellations.

All the mechanism of novel writing has a fascination for the general public and no part more so than the fitting of names to the characters, says the New York Herald. Why certain appellations are chosen whose aptness or quaintness strikes the reader is a question of great interest. The old-fashioned names and plays, with their Sneerwells, Backbites, Belairs, etc., and the later case, Thackeray's Newcomes, follow the simple rule of descriptive names, but the raison d'être of the many thousands which constantly absorb the public interest is utterly uncertain. Dickens, it is well known, ransacked old London for quaint and curious names. Shop signs were his special hunting ground and in this he had a French counterpart, Balzac. The story is a twice told tale how the great novelist dragged his companion through Paris one memorable night in search of a name to fit one of his stupendous creations, and just as the dawn was beginning to break and the companion's strength was failing a sign was found which bore a name sufficiently outlandish to suit even Balzac's taste. The name once given, he was wont to declare it grew to the character so that separation was to him utterly impossible. Such a separation was recently enforced on an author, Miss Anna B. Warner, well known from her many charming books and even more famous as the sister of Susan Warner, who wrote "The Wide, Wide World," planned a book which was to treat of West Point life. In searching for a name for her hero which would not be likely to appear in any army register an old name came to her mind—one that she had not heard for more than fifty years, and then only once—the owner having been a client of her father's. She recalled hearing him comment on the strangeness of the name and only that circumstance impressed it on her memory. The book was written with the hero bearing the quaint old name, but when she submitted it to the publishers she was informed that there was some one living of that name who decidedly objected to having it appear "in a book," distinctive as it was through its oddness. With inward protest the patient author then set about to find another name, but the personality of her hero had become indissolubly bound to her first choice and no other one seemed to fit it.

All Are Happy, Glad, and Well.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

The theories of physicians in regard to female complaints suffer a "Waterloo" very frequently, when sensible and thinking women take matters into their own hands.

Women are sometimes compelled to act for themselves, because of the suffering forced upon them by incompetent doctors, who are baffled by very simple complaints, because they are not the right sex to comprehend them.

Lydia E. Pinkham, when she gave to the world her Vegetable Compound, lifted women from the darkness into light. She placed within their reach a guaranty, not only of health, but of delicacy and self-respect.

The following letter is a little story where a "dear little boy" was th.

"Waterloo."

"I have taken three bottles of your Vegetable Compound, one package of Sanative Wash, one box of Liver Pills; and now I have a dear little babe four weeks old, and I am well. I have to thank you for this."

"I have spent $200.00 for doctors' bills without a cure. For my cure I only spent $5.00."

"I was once a victim of female troubles in their worst form. I have suffered untold agonies every month; had to stay in bed, and have poitices applied, and then could not stand the pain."

"My physician told me if I became pregnant I would die. I had bladder trouble, itching, backache, catarrh of the stomach, hysteria, and heart trouble, fainting spells and leucorrhoea. Can you wonder that I sing the praises of a medicine that has cured me of all these ills?"

It Whistled Itself.

That was the little boy's excuse when he accidentally whistled in school. Just so with our CLOAKS—they're selling themselves. Every day it comes to our ears that our line is superior to any in town, and that the prices named here are the lowest. They have just arrived and will be here for your inspection, our second big line of sample garments, in all about three hundred, among them being many stylish cuts which we have not shown heretofore, being styles that have been produced for mid-season flyers. The cloths are boucles, cheviots and kerseys, and in the latter are some of the nobbiest coats yet brought out. We believe we are doing twice the Cloak business of any concern in town—a statement easy to make but one which we know we can substantiate.

FUR CAPES are receiving no small attention and we call your particular notice to the special values we offer in that very popular fur, the Wool Seai, also in Astrakhan—reliable makes which you can depend on.

JANESVILLE, Wis., Nov. 13—The weather forecast for the next twenty-four hours is showers that all should think alike. Difference in opinion makes horse racing.

It Isn't Best

—MARK TWAIN.

Yes, and the difference of opinion sustains the trade of the clothing dealer. It's strange how blind some good people can be to their own interests, in buying the cheap, shoddy suits and overcoats that are advertised. They won't last, they will fade, they will get rusty looking before they are worn a week.

In the Long Run

a high grade suit or overcoat will cost much less per day of actual wear, because it wears proportionally longer. A ten dollar suit will last three times as long as one at five dollars; a twelve dollar one will wear four times as long and look better at that. On Saturday we made many sales of high-grade clothes, especially of our

$12.00 Scotch Cheviot Sack Suits

Good suits, these; saving, cheap. Good, because we have them tailor-made, by Browning, King & Co., -saving, because we sell them--cheap, because they'll out-wear half a dozen of "dealer's" trash. As for looks and style--the patterns are new and we selected each one from the cloth and had them made up into the most famous suits today.

Overcoats

We have as usual the only real swell coats in the city. When the weather gets rough

YOU'LL NEED AN ULSTER!

A strictly elegantly made coat in brown patent beaver! silk shoulders and sleeve linings, heavy strap-cloth body linings; a tailor's $40 coat. We guarantee it as well made as any first-class tailor can put up for the price. Of us you can buy it at $25.00

A few other elegant coats finished with silk and clay linings $18, $20 & $25.

Our brown worrombo beaver.

Our black plain beaver.

Our black meltons and

Our black, blue and gray freizes.

Have you seen our long cut Freize Ulsters at $10 and 12

Don't forget, it's talked all over town that we carry the only line of really nobby overcoats.
